PASSOVER

One of the most significant Jewish holidays, Passover, or Pesach in Hebrew, recalls and rejoices over the Israelites' redemption from slavery. It is an eight day observance commemorating the freedom and exodus of the Israelites (Jewish slaves) from Egypt during the reign of the Pharaoh Ramses II.

A time of family gatherings and lavish meals called Seders, the story of Passover is retold through the reading of the Haggadah. With its special foods, songs, and customs, the Seder is the focal point of the Passover celebration. Passover begins on the 15th day of the Jewish month of Nissan. As the Jewish day begins at sundown the night before, for the year 2006, the first night of Passover will be April 12th.

The symbolic elements of the feast reflect not only a look back and remembrance of what the Lord did for the Israelites; they also foreshadow a greater redemption through Jesus, the Passover Lamb. Jewish people around the world have celebrated Passover for thousands of years; however, most do not understand the ultimate significance of the festival.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not to your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight." Proverbs 3:5-6

RECIPE FROM S. KOREA

4

BULGOGI (Korean Beef Stir-fry) - South Korea

Steak or similar cut of meat (1 lb. for 4 people)

1/4 Cup Soy sauce

3 Tbsp. Sesame oil

Kiwi

Sugar

Black pepper

1 onion

3 garlic pieces

5 green onions

2 Tbsp. cooking wine

Vinegar

Large mixing bowl

Food processor/blender

Frying pan

Freeze the meat first to facilitate cutting into thin slices. After freezing, slightly defrost in the microwave- make sure the meat is still frozen, but workable.

Cut the meat into thin slices, as thin as possible. Put the slices into the large mixing bowl and sprinkle sugar over it. Mix well with hands. Let it sit for about 20 minutes.

Meanwhile, prepare the marinade: Mix soy sauce, 3 Tbsp. sugar, 3 dashes of black pepper, 3 Tbsp. sesame oil, 2 Tbsp. cooking wine, and 1 Tbsp. Vinegar. After mixing, taste it. You want to have a slightly salty, sweet taste. If too salty, add a bit more sugar.

Chop garlic into small pieces, cut green onion into 2-3 inch pieces, and put into sugar/meat mixture.

Pour sauce into the garlic/onion meat mixture and mix well using hands. It is important to mix thoroughly so the marinade is evenly distributed throughout the meat. Refrigerate for at least two hours or overnight.

Cook in frying pan until meat is cooked thoroughly, and serve with sticky rice.

Enjoy!
